By Scott Wolfe FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHILLICOTHE, OHIO- Special dedication ceremonies, honoring racing families from the past highlight the upcoming K-C Raceway opener on April 10. Not only will some of K-C's history be revisited to the times when K-C was known as Atomic Speedway, but several of the track's most notable families will be honored. The families will each be honored with the naming of areas of the grandstand in their family names.

Each of the sections A through J will now be named after K-C's greatest names. To be honored with a bleacher section in their name will be Dean Knittle, Sam Erwin, Junior Spencer, Charlie McCann, Wayne McGuire, Delmas Conley, Audie Swartz, Merle & Larry Williams, Dan Reno, Bud & Joe Frazier and The Smalley Family. Each of the families intend to have someone represent them on this special day.

On the racing card will be the AMRA Road Warriors/Advanced Services Modifieds paying $1,200 to win/$150 to start, AMRA Late Models and Hobby Stocks.

Besides the fanfare of opening night and the inaugural AMRA Late Model special, K-C hopes to kick off a productive second season for new owners Jeff and Vickie Schrader.

Some rule clarifications include the 410 Goodyear Tire rule, which requires both Goodyear rear tires and all four Goodyears if participants are to be eligible for nightly gift certificates. In the Hobby Stock division Mr. Schrader has indicated that NO soft tires are allowed-Stamped Medium and Hard compounds only. Also, either "clear" or "Aluminum" spoilers are now allowed.

K-C Raceway and the AMRA are ready to kick off the 2010 racing season in grand style, Saturday, April 10. Spring is just around the corner along with the 57th annual racing season on the high banks of Jeff and Vicki Schrader's K-C Raceway near Chillicothe, Ohio.

The "Road Warrior Challenge" brings many of the best open-wheel modified drivers to one race track for a potent purse and the right to compete for "Road Warrior Challenge" points. The best names in modified racing will be in the pits for the season opening event,. The "Road Warrior Challenge" schedule will see racing at K-C Raceway, Beckley Motorsports Park, I-77 Motorsports Park, Tyler County Speedway, Skyline Speedway, and Eastside Speedway in Virginia.
